2. Is it permissible to mark the field of play with broken lines or furrows?

No.

3. A goalkeeper or another player draws unauthorised marks on the field of play with his foot. What action does the referee take?

4. Can additional lines not approved in Law 1 be marked on the field of play?

No. Only lines approved in Law 1 can be marked on the field of play.

5. When a corner kick is about to be taken, can the players of the defending team be closer than the marks painted off the field of play 9.15 m. (10 yds) from the corner arc and at right angles to the goal line?

No. These marks are optional and are used to assist the referee. All players of the defending team must be at least 9.15 metres (10 yards) from the corner arc until the ball is in play.

6. Are the goal nets compulsory?

No. They are recommended whenever possible and may be required under competitions rules.

7. Law 1 International F.A. Board Decision 4 states that it is not permitted for any kind of commercial advertisements to be nearer than 1m. from the touch line. Is this measurement compulsory for commercial advertisements placed off the goal line?

Yes. Commercial advertising must be at least 1m. from the boundary lines of the field of play.

LAW 2 – THE BALL

1. May additional balls be placed around the field of play for use during a match?

Yes. Provided they meet the requirements of Law 2 and their use is under the control of the referee.

2. Is the ball considered as an object when it is used to strike an opponent?

Yes.

3. During the match, another ball enters the field of play. Should the referee stop play immediately?

The additional ball should be treated as an outside agent and the referee will stop the match if the additional ball interferes with play. Play is restarted by a dropped ball at the place where the ball was at the time the match was stopped. * Otherwise the referee will have the extra ball removed at the earliest possible opportunity.

LAW 3 – THE NUMBER OF PLAYERS

1. A player accidentally passes over one of the boundary lines of the field of play. Is he considered to have left the field of play without the permission of the referee?

No.

2. A player in possession of the ball passes over the touch line or the goal line without the ball in order to beat an opponent. What action does the referee take?

Play continues. Going outside the field of play may be considered as part of a playing movement, but players are expected, as a general rule, to remain within the playing area.

3. When does a substitute become a player?

Immediately after he enters the field of play in accordance with the substitution procedure.

4. If, before the start of a match played under the rules of a competition, a player is replaced by a named substitute without the referee having been notified, may this substitute be permitted to continue to participate in the game?

Yes. The player will be cautioned for unsporting behaviour. The referee will apply the advantage or stop play. If play is stopped to administer a caution, it will be restarted with an indirect free kick to the opposing team from the place where the ball was when play was stopped*.

5. A substitute, who is not participating in the match, runs onto the field of play and violently kicks an opponent. What action does the referee take?

The referee stops the match, sends off the substitute for violent conduct, shows him the red card and restarts the match with an indirect free kick to the opposing team where the ball was when play was stopped*.

6. A player who is about to be replaced refuses to leave the field of play. What action does the referee take?

Substitute no. 12 is sent off for violent conduct and shown the red card. Player no. 8 may be replaced by another eligible substitute or may continue as a player since the substitution has not been completed.

10.1. A player changes his position with the goalkeeper without informing the referee, when he notices it, what action does the referee take?

10.2. The new goalkeeper then touches the ball with his hand in his own penalty area. What action does the referee take?

In both cases he allows play to continue and cautions both players for unsporting behaviour when the ball next goes out of play.

11. A player being substituted leaves the field of play and the referee signals to the substitute to enter the field. Before entering, however, he takes a throw-in ignoring the substitution procedure stated in Law 3, regarding entering the field of play. Is this procedure permitted?

No, the substitution procedure stated in Law 3 must first be completed. The player must enter the field of play at the halfway line during a stoppage in play.

A goal is awarded since no offence has been committed.

In the opinion of the International F.A. Board, a match should not be considered valid if there are fewer than seven players in either team.

25. A player, from a team with only seven players, leaves the field of play to receive medical attention. What action does the referee take?

The match will stop until this player has received treatment and returns to the field of play. If he is unable to return, the match is abandoned, unless the member association has decided otherwise with regard to the minimum number of players.

The referee has no right to stop the match in this case.

14. While the ball is in play, two opposing players commit offences at the same time. What action does the referee take?

15. A spectator blows a whistle and a defender inside his own penalty area picks up the ball with his hands, assuming that play has been stopped. What action does the referee take?

LAW 7 – THE DURATION OF THE MATCH

1. Is it left to the referee's discretion to decide whether time lost through injuries or other causes is to be added or not?

No, the referee must add time in each half of the game for all time lost. However, the amount of such time is at the discretion of the referee.

2. Extra time is to be played to determine the winner of a match or home-and-away tie. Are players entitled to an interval at half-time of extra time?

It is generally accepted that players are entitled to an interval between the end of normal play and the start of extra time. It is not normal for there to be another interval between the two periods of extra time unless the competition rules provide otherwise.

3. Does the announcement of the minutes of time allowed at the end of a period of play express the exact time left in the match?

No. It is only an indication of the minimum time to be added at the end of each half of the match and at the end of each half of the extra time, but it can be increased if the referee considers it appropriate.

He restarts play by dropping the ball. It is not necessary for each team to be present for the restart with a dropped ball.

He restarts play with a dropped ball at the same position as before.

1. If a referee signals a goal before the ball has passed wholly over the goal line and immediately realises his error, what action should he take?

Play is restarted with a dropped ball*.

1. A player moving quickly towards his opponent's goal is penalised for an offside offence. From what position is the resulting indirect free kick taken?

The kick is taken from his position when the ball was last played to him by one of his team-mates*.

2. Does a referee penalise a player who is in an offside position and moves off the field of play to show the referee that he is not involved in active play?

No. It is not an offence in itself to be in an offside position and there is no need for the player to leave the field of play. However, if the referee considers that he has left the field for tactical reasons and has gained an unfair advantage by re-entering the field of play, the player should be cautioned for unsporting behaviour.

3. A defending player moves beyond his own goal line in order to place an opponent in an offside position. What action does the referee take?

The referee allows play to continue and cautions the defender for deliberately leaving the field of play without the referee's permission, when the ball is next out of play.

4. An attacking player's movement takes him between the goal posts into the goal net and at the same time, a team-mate kicks the ball into the goal. What action does the referee take if

a) The player who is between the goal posts remains stationary as the ball enters?

No action should be taken. A goal is awarded.

No. Players must be behind the penalty mark.

6. Player A plays the ball to a team-mate B in an onside position, although there is another attacker C in an offside position. Play continues, and afterwards, in the next phase of play, player B sends the ball to player C, who now is in an onside position. He scores a goal. What action does the referee take?

The referee awards the goal; because when player C received the ball he was in an onside position. He would not be penalised for being in an offside position in the first phase since he was not involved in active play.

7. The ball is played to a player in an offside position by a team-mate, but a defending player touches it deliberately with his hand. What action does the referee take?

If, in the opinion of the referee, the player in the offside position should be penalised for being involved in active play, he will penalise the offside and restart the match with an indirect free kick *. However, if in the referee's opinion, the player should not be penalised for being involved in active play, a direct free kick, or a penalty kick, will be awarded against the player who handled the ball.

8. A player in an offside position but not interfering with any opponent runs towards the ball played by a team-mate. Must the referee wait until he touches the ball to penalise him?

The referee cautions them or sends them off and restarts play with an indirect free kick to the opposing team from the place where the offence occurred *.

3. While the ball is in play, the goalkeeper violently strikes an opponent in the area enclosed by the goal line and the goal nets. What action does the referee take?

The referee stops play, sends off the goalkeeper and restarts play with a dropped ball at the place where it was located when play was stopped. *

A penalty kick is not awarded, as the area in which the incident occurred is not part of the field of play.

4. An attacker goes past the goalkeeper and kicks the ball towards the open goal. A defender throws a boot or similar object, which strikes the ball and prevents it entering the goal. What action does the referee take?

The boot or similar object is considered as an extension of the player's arm. Play would be stopped, a penalty kick would be awarded and the offending player would be sent off for preventing a goal by deliberately handling the ball.

5. An attacker goes past the goalkeeper and kicks the ball towards the open goal. A goalkeeper then throws a boot or similar object, which strikes the ball and prevents it entering the goal. What action does the referee take?

The goalkeeper is cautioned for unsporting behaviour and the match is restarted by an indirect free kick to be taken from the place where the ball was when it was struck by the boot or similar object*.

9. A player enters the field of play without receiving a signal from the referee and then deliberately handles the ball. What action does the referee take?

The player is cautioned for entering the field of play without the permission of the referee. Play is restarted with a direct free kick or penalty kick to punish the more serious offence *.

If, in the opinion of the referee, the player is also guilty of unsporting behaviour, by deliberately handling the ball, he is sent off for receiving a second caution in the same match.

If, in the opinion of the referee, the player is also guilty of denying a goal or an obvious goalscoring opportunity, the player is sent off.

10. A player running with the ball sees a defender immediately in front of him and runs off the field of play to continue playing the ball. The opponent holds him beyond the touch line to prevent him continuing his run. What action does the referee take?

Play is stopped and the opponent is cautioned for unsporting behaviour. Play is restarted with a dropped ball at the place where the ball was located when play was stopped*.

11. While the ball is in play, a player standing inside his own penalty area throws an object at an opponent standing outside the penalty area. What action does the referee take?

Play is stopped and the player is sent off for violent conduct. Play is restarted with an indirect free kick to the opposing team to be taken from the place where the offence occurred*.

15. The goalkeeper in his penalty area holds the ball in his hands then places it on the ground and takes it outside the penalty area. He then decides to re-enter the penalty area and touches the ball again with his hands. What action does the referee take?

An indirect free kick is awarded to the opposing team*.

16. A goalkeeper holding the ball bounces it before he kicks it upfield. Is it an offence to bounce the ball?

No. In the spirit of the Law he would not be regarded as having released the ball from his possession.

17. If a goalkeeper is bouncing the ball, may an opponent play the ball as it touches the ground?

The referee awards a penalty kick. The offence of deliberate handball includes the illegal use of either hand or arm.

21. A throw-in is taken by the attacking team and the ball goes to the defending goalkeeper. The goalkeeper misses the ball and a teammate punches the ball over the bar. What decision would the referee give?

A penalty kick would be awarded. The referee would normally caution the player for unsporting behaviour. The player does not prevent a goal or an obvious goalscoring opportunity since a goal cannot be scored directly from a throw-in.

22. A player tries to prevent the ball entering the goal by deliberately handling it. The ball, however, enters the goal. What action does the referee take?

He awards the goal and cautions the player for unsporting behaviour.

23. A player handles the ball deliberately, trying to prevent it reaching an opponent. Although he touches the ball, he fails to prevent his opponent receiving it. What action does the referee take?

If advantage was allowed, the offending player will be cautioned for unsporting behaviour in the next stoppage in play.

24. A player is charged when the ball is not within playing distance. What action should the referee take?

If the referee considers the charge on the opponent to be careless, a direct free kick * or a penalty kick will be awarded.

The offending player is punished with a direct free kick for holding an opponent * or penalty kick.

26. Is it permitted for a referee to show a red card to a substitute to indicate he must leave the technical area and go to the changing room, whether or not he has taken part in the match, for his use of offensive, insulting or abusive language and/or gestures?

Yes. All players, substitutes and substituted players come under the jurisdiction of the referee whether they are on the field of play or not. The use of the red card is to give a clear indication that a sanction is being issued.

27. A player intentionally lies on the ball for an unreasonable length of time. What action does the referee take?

He stops play, cautions the player for unsporting behaviour and restarts play with an indirect free kick.

28. A referee cautions a player who then apologises for his misconduct. Can the referee decide not to report the incident?

No. All cautions must be reported.

30. Is it permitted for two or more players to challenge an opponent at the same time?

He would award a direct free kick * or penalty kick.

33. A player is in an offside position and an assistant referee raises his flag. The referee does not see the signal and a defending player denies an opponent an obvious goalscoring opportunity. The referee stops play and only then sees the signal of the assistant referee. What action does the referee take?

a) If he accepts the signal for offside from the assistant referee, he does not send off the defender, since no obvious goalscoring opportunity has occurred. Play is restarted with an indirect free kick to the defending team *.

The player may be sanctioned however if, in the opinion of the referee, his action on its own was a cautionable or sending-off offence.

b) If he does not accept that an offside offence has occurred, the defending player is sent off for denying an obvious goalscoring opportunity and play is restarted with a direct free kick * or penalty kick to the attacking team.

34. A player is in an offside position and an assistant referee raises his flag. The referee does not see the signal and a defending player violently punches an opponent. The referee stops play and only then sees the signal of the assistant referee. What action does the referee take?

a. If he accepts the signal for offside from the assistant referee, he sends off the defender for violent conduct and restarts play with an indirect free kick for the defending team *.

The goal is disallowed, the goalkeeper is sent off for violent conduct and a penalty kick is awarded to the opposing team.

1. A player takes a free kick from outside his own penalty area and then touches the ball again by deliberately handling the ball before another player has played it. What action does the referee take?

He punishes the more serious offence, by awarding a direct free kick or penalty kick if the offence took place inside the penalty area.

2. A team is awarded a free kick in its own penalty area. The player taking the kick hits the ball against a team-mate who is inside the penalty area and the ball enters the goal. What action does the referee take?

The kick is retaken since the ball is not in play until it has passed outside the penalty area.

The players may not enter until the ball has passed outside the penalty area.

Yes. The ball is in play when it is kicked and moves.

6. An indirect free kick is awarded to the attacking team outside the opponents' penalty area. The referee fails to raise his arm to indicate that the kick is indirect and the ball is kicked directly into the goal. What action does the referee take?

He has the free kick retaken because of the referee's mistake. The initial indirect free kick, is not nullified by the referee's mistake.

7. A player takes a quick free kick and the ball goes into goal. The referee has not had the opportunity to indicate that the free kick was indirect. What action should the referee take?

Order the kick to be retaken as the original offence only merited an indirect free kick but the referee did not have the opportunity to give the recognised signal.

He allows play to continue.

He orders the kick to be retaken.

4. When a penalty kick is being taken, and after the referee has given the necessary signal, a team-mate of the player identified to take the kick suddenly rushes forward and takes it instead. What action does the referee take?

The referee stops play and restarts the match with an indirect free kick to the defending team where the infringement occurred i.e. where the player advanced closer than 9.15m. The player is cautioned for unsporting behaviour.

5. When a penalty kick is taken, the ball strikes the goalpost and/or crossbar and bursts. What action does the referee take?

If the ball enters the goal directly after hitting the goal post or crossbar the goal is allowed.

If the ball rebounds into play the referee stops play, obtains a replacement ball and restarts play with a dropped ball.* If this second situation occurs during additional time, the match ends.

6. After additional time has been allowed to enable a penalty kick to be taken or retaken at half-time or full time, or during “kicks from the penalty mark”, the ball bursts or becomes defective before touching the posts, the crossbar or the goalkeeper, without having crossed the goal line. What decision will the referee take?

The penalty kick must be retaken with a new ball.

7. The referee signals for a penalty kick to be taken. An attacking player then violently punches an opponent outside the penalty area. The referee notices the incident. What action does the referee take?

The referee allows the kick to proceed. If the ball enters the goal, the kick is retaken.

If the ball does not enter the goal, the referee stops play and restarts the match with an indirect free kick to the defending team from the place where the infringement occurred and sends off the player for violent conduct.

8. A player taking a penalty kick back heels the ball to a team-mate who kicks the ball into the goal. What action does the referee take?

All players who are not injured must participate in the taking of kicks from the penalty mark. If they do not return to the field of play, the kicks will not be taken and the referee will report the incident to the appropriate authorities.

g) May a player be cautioned or sent off during the taking of kicks from the penalty mark to determine the winner of a match or home-and-away tie?

h) Kicks from the penalty mark are about to be taken to decide the winner of a match or home-and-away tie. May one of the teams, which has not used a substitute, replace one or more of its players with the substitute(s) prior to the kicks being taken?

Play is restarted with a direct free kick * or penalty kick to the opposing team, from the place where the offence occurred, i.e. the place where the ball struck the opponent.
